I also alerted Hoskinson to the upcoming SALT verification briefing of Senator Sam Nunn (D., Ga.) this Friday, 2 December; the upcoming briefing request from the Senate Armed Services Committee on Soviet threat to U.S. forces to be held 9 and 16 December as a joint presentation of CIA and other elements in the Intelligence Community, following the pattern successfully used by Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.) on the BACKFIRE; and the interest of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee staffers and S. Res. 4 designees in seeking to get a weapons briefing at the Secret level.

35. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Called Tim Ingram, Staff Director, House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, to renew my request for the Committee hearing material involving [REDACTED] He said it was his oversight in not sending it to us and would do so promptly.

He also asked that I check on the status of the response to the Subcommittee on the [REDACTED] OGC, has been alerted and has said [REDACTED] OGC, would be back to us on this. He also asked if he might talk to someone in our General Counsel's office to get insight into the current procedures being followed in reporting to Justice Department under 28 USC 535 as background in connection with a report that will be recommended for Committee approval. [REDACTED] OGC, is consulting on this with Tony Lapham, General Counsel.
